Newsletter

8th December 2023

Message from Mrs. Woan:

Last Friday we saw the arrival of the Elf! Well that naughty Elf has been up to mischief this week! Ask your children what he has been getting up to!

It is getting a lot colder, please ensure you send children to school in a suitably warm coat, hats and gloves. Outdoor play has so many benefits so we try to get outdoors daily.

Best Class of The Week is:
Owls

Recently one of the school governors was out and about in the morning meeting parents. It has been great to have some positive feedback from you.

A huge THANK YOU! Please tell your friends about us.

School is 'going above and beyond', excellent, love it, fantastic, highly recommend.

All parents said that their children were happy whilst at school. They feel that the school is much more settled to where it had been.

Parents felt that they can approach their children's teacher to discuss their child's progress. They also said that the Headteacher was visible and approachable too.

BOB's Book of Brilliance

Kingfishers: Bruno and Mason for detailed evaluations about their own art work and Lydia for explaining her opinion about a poem she liked. Georgia for completing some very tricky maths.

Owls: Riley, Archie, Theo and Jessica for using their knowledge of Picasso to create Picasso style Santa pictures.

Butterflies: Liam for completing tricky maths and Viktoria for an independent letter to Santa.

These children have worked extra hard. A huge well done!
