

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

Truthfulness

'Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my saviour' Psalm 25:5

These Reception children are very proud of their achievement. They have demonstrated our value 'truthfulness'.

We know it is important to be honest when playing games.

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

The children know it is important to be truthful about how many points they scored in a game. Being honest with themselves is an important quality to have.

Our class robot was very proud of us for teaching him to be honest that he gave us some biscuits!

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

We have to learn to be truthful in science as it is important the results are fair.

When we fall out with our friends it is important to be truthful with each other so that we can solve our disagreements.

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

Year 1 children role playing the understand why it is important to be truthful.

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18