

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

RE Blog

Ladybirds Class

Autumn 2 – Diwali

The children enjoyed looking at their Chatterbox items: -

Diya lamps (Diwali), tea Lights, glow sticks, rangoli patterns

The children learnt that Diwali is a festival celebrated in a world Faith. The children enjoyed painting rangoli patterns. The children learnt that Diwali is known as the 'festival of lights' because houses, shops and public places are decorated with small earthenware oil lamps called diyas. They made their own diya lamps from clay, painted them with bright colours and took them home with a candle in.

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

Autumn 2 – Christmas

The children enjoyed opening the Christmas chatterbox and exploring all the items.

- Nativity pictures from around the world.
- Baby boy birth congratulations card.
- Handful of straw
- Sheep/angel
- A birthday candle
- Happy birthday banner
- Wrapped gift (cardboard box)
- Dummy/rattle
- Christmas card

The children learnt that Christmas is the celebration of Jesus' birthday. They know that Jesus was a very special baby, the Son of God. The children learnt that the church celebrates Christmas in special ways.

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

This is our sensory Nativity story-telling sticks. We heard lots of sounds and felt different objects.

The children performed the Nativity story in our Church.

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18